

COURA FALL - Biography

Data processing specialist, she quickly acquired a broad experience in Commercial field and especially in the Management while having high responsibilities in great telecoms companies through Africa.

In 2003, Following an initiative of the WITSA (World Information Technology Services Association), she was a founder member of a ICT association in Senegal, created by a general consensus between the actor-keys of the sector, and lay the pillars of.

From 2005, she was the animator for Senegal for the ICT Advocacy program, part of CATIA program and have played a role with stakeholders in advocacy by reinforcing the capacity building of the Media on the ICT issues and policies. Since June 2007, she is working for APC as Africa ICT policy advocacy Coordinator to develop and implement the APC regional ICT policy advocacy and is currently the Coordinator for GOREeTIC, a West and Central Africa ICT4D Network.