

Activity Areas	Status 2004	Status 2005	Status (2006/2007)
Policy Education - educate governments & policy makers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Informing public policymakers via discussion of their issues - Educate policymakers on existing Internet coordination: activities and processes - Educate developing country governments on policy, technology, open source, cybersecurity through in-country and in-region activity - Educate gov'ts (generally about Internet, Cybersecurity), Educate Teachers (safe use of Internet, help kids learn), Educate Workers (to improve their Internet skills, performance and employment opportunities) via ISOC Orgs and ISOC Chapters - 1) Strong role (neutral, independent) in WSIS task forces to influence direction; 2) use ISOC contacts to educate and influence WSIS outcomes; 3) get list of "players" in involved countries - 1) Create five regional centers to educate gov officials on Internet related issues; 2) Call for five regional meetings (consultations to discuss on Internet governance/WSIS related issues - ISOC makes the connection between policy and technology; ISOC is educator, facilitator, convener, impedance-matcher - Get Gov't involved, but in our way ("do it my way") 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - active participation in WSIS - Internet coordination workshop - News bulletins - Member briefings (e.g. on DNS and root servers) - cooperation with other organisations (RIR's, ICANN, root server operators etc.) - active participation at events governments attend (e.g. GAC, ICANN, SIDN, ITU Telecom World 2003, ITU WG on Internet Governance, UN ICT Global Forum) - I* groups committee - active participation in many events (e.g. WSIS, ITU Workshop, UN ICT Global Forum, SIDN, RIRs etc.) - speaking to policy makers where ever possible (e.g. at ICANN Meetings) - press contacts - INET 'governance' track - Presentations (showing governments where they can & should be playing a role) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - active role in the UN WG on Internet Governance - more publications like the root server member briefing - tutorials at ICANN meetings - presentations at GAC meetings - strengthen our role in Internet coordination - strengthening our coordination efforts with other organisations - more chapter involvement - reach out to local press - actively track WSIS - set up regional policy committees - small topical meetings in conjunction with existing regional meetings 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - active role in Internet Governance Forum (member) - active role in other I.G. related activities and discussions - active leading role in Internet coordination (see Internet pavilion at WSIS and ITU) - more chapter involvement in policy statements programs (see WSIS ambassadors) - setting up regional policy advisory groups - setting up regional ISOC Bureaus - small topical meetings in conjunction with existing regional meetings (see Regional INETs in conjunction with Regional WSIS and *NOG meetings) - education for teachers and workers no high priority at the moment
Information dissemination - publications - web portal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - First-class web portal with information that becomes a MUST to visit for Internet standards and governance - First-class portal of Internet policies (archive) and news (library) - ISOC should publish authoritative (trusted), readable, timely material for large audiences - Educate Chapters to be a distribution channel 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - more information on our web site - started to clean up web site - member briefings - IEEE publications - News bulletins - improved newsletter (more timely, more input from chapters, regular reports) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - define requirements for policy portal - identify partners - member briefings - overhaul ISOC web site - IETF publications 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - more up to date and better structured policy pages on ISOC web site - started overhaul of ISOC web site - IETF publications (IETF Journal) - chapter development effort underway
Standards Education (various activities related to IETF standards for different type's of audiences) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Explain the "why" of IETF standards - Educate developers of Internet (policy/technical) on needs from emerging countries - Educate IETF contributors on wider impacts of technical choices - Pre-tutorials at the IETF meeting, run by ISOC and ADs - ITU/IETF/ICANN summit/workshop - bring leaders together - Educate end-users regarding Internet Security - Explain risks of using Internet - DNS Issues: Programmes "ccTLDs" in collaboration with ICANN, RIRs, CENTR, REGISTRIES, ... sustainable/multilingual, particularly in developing countries 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - WSIS coordination workshop - GAC presentation - News bulletins - started collaboration with IEEE - preparatory meeting before UN ICT Global Forum - I* groups committee - SEINIT - DNS and root server member briefing - closer collaboration with root server operators - ccTLD workshop (e.g. together with I* orgs) - IDN workshop (INET04) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - IETF publications and tutorials - pre-IETF tutorials - collaboration with other orgs active in this area 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - regular publication of IETF Journal - support for IAB for presentations at ops. Mtgs. - ISOC-IETF speaking slots at *NOG mtgs. - ISOC Fellowship to attend IETF mtgs - new IETF publication for policy makers planned - leadership summit not planned at the moment (overtaken by events) - ccTLD workshops ongoing and expanding (focus on security and stability) - new ccTLD mgmt & policy meetings for ccTLDs together with ICANN
Technology Education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Teach others how to do their own education (e.g. CEENET) - Twinning program: Developed <-> Developing countries; Univ./Professional Orgs, Levels - Programs for schools/S.C.O.R.E. re: 'Net education (etiquette, tech'l) thru Chapters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Launched ISOC Workshop Resource Centre - Supported workshops (e.g. AfNOG, SANOG, WALC, ccTLD workshop) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - committee to determine regional education needs, define education target groups and implement process to evaluate proposals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ISOC Regional Bureaus as focal point for training and information dissemination - close cooperation with *NOG organisers to determine needs - setting up a more structured follow-up mechanism to measure results - ccTLD workshops for developing countries - extension and promotion of WRC - twinning program and education in schools not planned at the moment
Studies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - on effects of bringing Internet into a country: revenues lost, revenue streams created - on the economic impacts of competing internet governance models (CMU, Oxford Internet Institute, etc) 			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - studies not done at the moment, maybe planned for 2008 and beyond